Welcome Learning

For the student who looks for an academic challenge and an opportunity to gain scholarship monies, The American Legion's National High Oratorical Contest is a natural fit. Students learn valuable information about our country's Constitution in a contest that has been held by The American Legion for more than 65 years.

"We can rejoice that the Constitution protects our individual rights, but the catch is, freedom comes with responsibility."

 Nicholas Elledge, TN First Place 2006

The main purpose of The National High School Oratorical Contest is to develop a deeper knowledge and appreciation of the Constitution of the United States on the part of high school students. Other objectives of the contest include the development of leadership qualities, the ability to think and speak clearly and intelligently, and the preparation for acceptance of the duties and responsibilities, the rights and privileges of American citizenship.

JUDGES FOR THE CONTEST ARE CHOSEN CAREFULLY.

The judges are an integral part of the Oratorical Contest. Their qualifications are considered carefully as the decision of the judges is final and must be reached without bias. Five judges are used in the process, which ultimately results in the selection of a National Champion each year.

The National Association of Secondary School Principals has placed this program on the NASSP National Advisory List of Student Contests and Activities for 2006-2007.
